

Copeland-Johnson

Trishelle Copeland-Johnson Receives Undergraduate Leadership Award

TAMPA, Fla (August 16, 2012) Trishelle Copeland-Johnson, a senior majoring in chemical engineering, has been awarded the 2012 NOBCChE Winifred Burks-Houck Undergraduate Leadership Award. As the recipient National Organization for the Professional Advancement of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers (NOBCChE) recognizes her academic achievements and contributions to scientific research.

She will receive the award at the 39th Annual NOBCChE Conference in Washington, DC in September.

-USF-

The University of South Florida is a high-impact, global research university dedicated to student success. USF is classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in the top tier of research universities, a distinction attained by only 2.2 percent of all universities. The Carnegie Foundation also classifies USF as a community engaged university. It is ranked 44th in total research expenditures and 34th in federal research expenditures for public universities by the National Science Foundation. The USF System has an annual budget of $1.5 billion, an annual economic impact of $3.7 billion, and serves 47,000 students in Tampa, St. Petersburg, Sarasota-Manatee and Lakeland.

Janet Gillis
Communications Officer
USF College of Engineering
813-974-3485
janetgillis@usf.edu